Description:	Although we must stay far apart physically, young people must feel help is close. Because Kids Help Phone is an e-mental health service, we can remain open for young people across Canada 24/7 without any face-to-face contact. Kids Help Phone is on a mission to ensure youth are never alone as we all face an unprecedented global crisis with the COVID-19 pandemic
Special Conditions:	Live chat is temporarily closed. The Canadian Government has provided $7.5 million to support the Kids Help Phone. Details about this funding are found by following this link and going to the Youth, post-secondary students and recent graduates section: https://www.canada.ca/en/department-finance/economic-response-plan.html#individuals
